Overview and product type. The Dell Latitude is a laptop family from Dell Computers, intended for business use. By contrast, the Dell Inspiron is aimed at the consumer market and its specifications change regularly. Whereas Inspiron may change vendors or components several times over the course of a single model, the Latitude line generally retains identical components throughout its production.

This is so helpful, a great write up that is helping me narrow down the long list of possibilities. My challenge is that I, as the photographer am the moving object, taking pictures from the backseat of a motorcycle often in tricky, rough terrain - sometimes of other riders, sometimes scenery and track surface.
